Description

2023 Polycraft Tuffy 300

Polycraft have been manufacturing Rotomolded boats for over 20 years using recyclable materials. Check out youtube for Polycraft Tuffy reviews

This ex demo boat is available to take away today with engine and trailer packages available. We have a number of boats arriving in August 2022 that are available to order in a number of colours

The emergence of roto-moulded polyethylene boats is one of the fastest growing trends in the marine industry today. Canoes, sailing boats and now outboard powered fishing and recreational boats are taking advantage of this unique material which provides customer benefits well in excess of alternative materials traditionally used in the industry.

Polycraft are dedicated to producing strong, low maintenance boats perfect for the hard core fisherman and the recreational boater
